WEDNESDAY, April 21, 2004 - 8:30am—11:30am

Topics to include...

Paycheck Fraud: What you can do to prevent it in your workplace.

Joseph Flueckiger, CPP, will speak about what an effective manager should do to prevent fraud in today's environment. You will learn about what are increasingly common risks in payroll, accounting and various financial functions. Learn the most recent types of fraud and what are the reasonable prevention systems you should have in place.

Our Speaker:

Joe Flueckiger is the Senior Vice President and Director of Corporate Security of City National Bank. He is responsible for Physical Security, Investigations and the security program for the bank. His experience in the security field spans over 22 years. Previously, Joe was Security Manager and VP for First Interstate Bank of California. His responsibilities included Uniform Services, Security Systems, Executive Protection and security for all First Interstate facilities in the state of California. Joe is past President of the Chief Special Agents Association, is on the Board of Directors for the Peace Officers Association of Los Angeles County and a member of the Western States Bank Security Directors Association.
