Every year the SSA and IRS have a joint Forum giving large employers and payroll service providers an update on what to expect in the next year. The Forum was held on June 2, 2005 in Baltimore, MD, with an unprecedented 450 attendees (usual turnout is around 250!) A tremendous volume of information was covered by 6 agencies. Some of the information discussed has already been implemented and will affect all employers. This discussion will cover the highlights of the meeting and include copies of all the handouts from each of the agencies.

Our Speaker:
