Our Speaker:

Bill Brees is the Employer Services Liaison Officer (ESLO) in the Social Security Administration's San Francisco region. He is the primary SSA contact for W-2 issues for employers in California, Arizona, Nevada, Hawaii, and U. S. Territories in the Pacific (American Samoa, Guam, and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands). Bill has filled this role since 1982, first as Regional Magnetic Media Coordinator and now ESLO. He maintains a "customer" list of over 8,000 companies, including employers who file W-2's electronically or who mail magnetic tapes or diskettes, software vendors, payroll services and other "third-party" tax filing agents for employers, organizations of payroll professionals, and the payroll press. Bill is a frequent speaker at APA meetings. He describes himself as both a "translator" between government customers and SSA, helping them understand annual wage reporting requirements, and facilitator, helping users and customers achieve "win win" annual wage reporting with federal and State agencies. Outside the office, volunteer activities keep him busy, too. Bill's a retreat leader, small group facilitator, and trains other leaders in both of those. For the past seven years he's also been the Donations Head for AIDS Walk San Francisco, recruiting and training other volunteers for that annual event. But for pure fun, you'll find Bill playing with his four grandchildren or outdoors white water rafting or hiking.
