Brenda Mills has worked for the EDD forever (!) in various positions and departments. Brenda currently works in Taxpayer Education and Assistance and is responsible for educating new & existing employers on payroll reporting requirements. She is an all-round EDD troubleshooter, responding to written correspondence from tax payers and their accountants. Brenda was previously with the collection division of the Tax branch of the EDD, where she pursued erroneously paid unemployment insurance benefits (to be put back into employer's reserve accounts) and collected outstanding funds due from employers. Brenda has also been part of the Operations branch, processing unemployment insurance claims and determining eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits. In short, she has heard it all, from both sides of the unemployment insurance world!
